

"Women Rule - Youth Oppresses"

* "And the people shall be oppressed, ev* ery one by another, and every one by
* his neighbour; the child shall behave
* himself proudly against the ancient, and
* the base against the honorable. As for * my people, children are their oppres-
* sors, and women rule over them. O h
* my people, they which lead thee cause
* thee to err and destroy the way of thy
* paths."

- Is. 3:5, 12. see also v 12

In treating this subject honestly, it becomes essential to say that which might offend many women. I have no such desire (I think of woman as one of God's wondrous inventions). Woman - in the place where God intended her - is marvelous and beautiful, even adorable. But so soon as she usurps, or in any degree invades man's sphere, grief and ruin result.

The above Scripture was spoken to and for God's 'covenant people', and was fulfilled for them. But can we say that Gentile Christendom is not God's 'covenant people'? (See Isaiah 49:7-9, which declares that our Redeemer, was to be given for a covenant of the people.") A "covenant" necessitates two: the one offering and the other accepting. Since Judah-Israel rejected their Messiah, they came not into "the bond of the covenant" by faith. But the Gentiles (some) received Him (thru faith): hence are we His spiritual "covenant people." Therefore must His words fulfill unto us, even as they have unto His earthly "covenant people." Therefore, WOE unto Christendom, for, "children are our oppressors" and women rule ---.

It is not difficult to hear the quick retort: "Where do women rule?" SUBTLY - almost everywhere! Our males have degenerated into spineless 'panty-waists', FRONTing for the female.

First for a quick glance at our most appealing, expressive art: namely, painting and sculpture. How is the human body portrayed in the nude? Almost invariably the male is revealed with his unbecoming appendage, while I personally have as yet never seen even one instance of woman's artistically beautiful body in its entirety, revealed in either painting or sculpture!

WHO has decreed that the male must be on display (for snickers)? but the all-beautiful female form partially obscured, or desexed? You may safely bet your last nickel, and stake your life on top of it, that such travesty on God's masterpiece of living beauty, and dishonesty in art, was never invented by the male. It has merely been executed by the spineless creature he has become, and enforced laws to hide woman's artistic form. Woman is behind it ("shall rule - - -.")

Even the entrancing beauty of a young woman's bosom, has - in vast areas of Christendom, been labelled "obscene". What hypocritical SMEAR on God's masterpiece of beauty! Seriously do I doubt you can find one normal male out of ten thousand who doesn't stand in rapt admiration before the sheer artistry of the female form (as God alone could fashion her). It is not difficult to figure: woman's jealousy and fear - after she has passed her prime of life...

I am not advocating nudism, neither that the female form should be on public display (that is not a part of my divine commission): I am only pointing to this indisputable evidence of woman's 'rulership' in a "man's world," - in fulfillment of Scripture.

When Adam's spine snaked, he ignored God, yielding to his mate. Then he got God's boot! His children still groan under the consequent curse!

Abraham finally yielded to his wife's plea: then his troubles commenced. Jacob listened to his mother, then shortly had to flee for his life.

King Ahab of Israel was fully ruled by his foreign wife Jezebel: shortly the 10-tribed kingdom of Israel went into dispersion and permanent eclipse. Judah was not quite so pantless, surviving a little longer.

King Ahasuerus of the Medes and Persians, had sufficient spine to put his queen in her place. Blessed became his kingdom - even to the honor of restoring His chosen people. He set a blessed example, even unto a 'heathen' people...

"The people should be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor." I do not know what obtains in foreign countries, but here we see little of this in its more flagrant aspect. However, we do see it to an appalling degree in the more subtle form which God had in mind. I speak of the dole, or so-called Social Security. Its final analysis is that every producer becomes heavily taxed in order to feed an ever growing army of non-producers. It has already become a terrific "oppression."

"The child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient". Demonstrations, riots, sit-ins, lay-downs, and outright thumbing of the noses at constituted authority is the common order of our time by the youngsters.

"And the base against the honorable." Our society is filled with such. Aside from that, we have seen three outstanding instances namely, Mussolini, Stalin and Hitler. All had base backgrounds, yet exalted themselves against the honorable. In Rev. 16:13, God spoke of those three men. Being given to me by revelation in 1939, I forecast the very duration of their evil reigns.

"They which lead thee, cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." Over a long period of time, women have exercised an increasing degree of influence in human affairs, principally through their husbands in important decisions. Of late, woman has bodily invaded man's domain and in many an instance proven herself competent. Regardless of such competence and successes, it still constitutes the earmark of the last days of this dispensation. Clearly did God say that those who lead us, destroy the way of our paths (the ancient waymarks or standard conduct). The combined influence of women and children (youngsters) through our spineless men, leads us into error and consequent woe. A careful study of Isaiah's third chapter reveals that these were the signs of Jerusalem's impending fall and Judah's outcasting. Unto modern Christendom, Jerusalem typifies the organized church of Christ, while Judah stands for our progress and prosperity. Women have subtly ruled down through many ages, but the arising of our youngsters as we have witnessed during the past few years, constitutes a latter day sign that the days of Christendom are numbered.

Verse 9: "They declare their sin as Sodom." Presumably, Sodomy has been more or less rampant down through the ages, but now of late it has come into the open while some courts have actually sanctioned it. When the vilest sin on earth becomes so common that it breaks out into the open and becomes abetted by our courts, then shall the horrible fate of Sodom and Gomorrah become our very own. Neither shall we have long to wait. (The Beast) "makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men." That's what happened to Sodom-Gomorrah.

On the other aspect of this prophecy I have written repeatedly and extensively. I refer to woman as symbolizing man's emotional and desire nature. This has risen to disgusting liberties and proportion. That which God intended as sacred and beautiful is now openly cultivated in the gutter, and seemingly without shame. This becomes the complementary sign that our days are numbered.

In conjunction with all this, it seems in place to bring out the words of Our Lord's prophecy that families and households should become divided against themselves: children against their parents, and vice versa. As one of my students recently wrote how he was appalled at seeing the ever increasing number of instances where youngsters murder their parents, or maybe a parent murders the entire household.

What is the explanation for these increasing atrocities and evils? I have told you before, and did publicly forecast as early as the mid-thirties, that towards the close of this era, demon hordes out of Lucifer's tail would deeply infiltrate the earth's psychic atmosphere, resulting in obsessions, ranging from partial to complete. This is now well-commenced, although that which we have seen up to this moment is but as a summer picnic in contrast to hell let loose by the grim events on the near horizon. Stark naked demonism shall rise up like a toadstool overnight, after the first-fruits have been called out.

The second explanatory factor is incidental to God having commanded a multitude of young and obstreperous spirits to incarnate into our midst. They are now highly amenable to the demon hordes which are now interpenetrating the human aura.

* Of this I have also written repeatedly,
STRIKES * but I mention it again for its rapidly
* increasing frequency unto epidemic
* proportions, is truly an appalling sight. What day of the year can we now point to saying "on that day there was no strike obtaining"? Many great dailies in various parts of the country have been killed permanently. Tens of thousands of workers are out in the motor industry. Wherever we look, hell's machinations are the same and increasing. How can you seriously believe that man shall redeem himself? Or even that our society is strong with only progress and prosperity ahead?

As our Lord renounced His own power, refusing to use it against His enemies, which fact was again more clearly and prophetically depicted for us by His lifeless body throughout an approximate 39 hours, so similarly will you find that God permits Christendom to be taken across the barrel, roundly whipped and increasingly retreating throughout a corresponding prophetic period during the final and titanic struggle which shall terminate our Christian era. Prophetically its corresponding measure will approximate 18 months, possibly upwards to 20. Then, as the Lord rose triumphant over death, and reappeared unto His chosen, so will He likewise rise to the defeat of the Lucifer-led nations during the last one hundred days or so of the Armageddon struggle. As of old, they saw Him ascend into the glory, so likewise shall He then descend in great power and glory, annihilating His enemies.

Which reminds me of a woman recently writing in to say that she found it difficult to believe that God would take out of this world a group of good people leaving the evil behind. That she considered it more likely the good people would eventually come to understanding (after sufficient suffering) and then deport all the hoodlums. Insofar as the great American is concerned, it is likely such wishful thinking will snag up, for most of its hoodlums were native born. I for one will not interpret scripture in such a manner as to deny its face value. I cannot accept a God who talks in plain language but means something vastly different.

CHILDREN * "Students" on this continent, in RULE: * Europe as well as in Asia, stage
* mass demonstrations, sit-ins,
* stay-outs, take-overs and riots - to sway, to influence and to RULE. Their inflated egos and training-in-obstreperance commenced during the last war - when fathers were away.
While many of those who had gone thru the hell of war were ill fit to be fathers on their return.

Only this morning I scanned an article about Canadian universities and their students. Here in Canada we have been more conservative and slow, but beginning to catch on fast to the 'American way' (communist-led). I need not tell you about Columbia. I am also sure there is much room for improvements. But here are two highlights of the article, as voiced by the best 'educated' and leading members of their student bodies:

- "Exams must be abolished"!
- "Do away with the authoritarian"
(students must have important voice)
- "Students to be paid for attending."

Now, "ain't that ducky" to be placed on salary out of university funds, to play around, no one to tell them off nor 'boss' them; neither exams to fret them.

Should they get their way (what will stop them in our pantless society - headed for the Pit ?), it will not be long until they "strike for higher pay"! We might well wonder how many would be fit to 'graduate' - before death . . .

* "And I will give children to be their princes,
* and babes shall rule over them" - Is 3:4; 12

All of this is the fruit of materialistically oriented education (a branch of the Tree of Knowledge---).

I wonder how many of you ever stopped to realize that God is without formal education ?!

Sometimes I have wondered why God has not to someone highly educated, granted the revelations given me ? Branches of the Tree of Knowledge----!

Parents, if you have a son quite smart, a great education might help him much - in our Lucifer-led society. But if you have a normal daughter, do not spend all of your money to lay the foundation for her ruined future. God fashioned her to mother the human race, and to "be a helpmate for the male."

When Judah commenced to worship the "Queen of Heaven", their "days were numbered" and they went into captivity. One great church of today is engrossed in idolatry unto the "Queen of Heaven." Many nations of that idolatry have fallen to communism: the others soon will.

Woman - emotions - desire: hell invades. Man - reason - will : God's Truth-in-righteousness.
